I have been in the residential custom home construction business since 1979. I moved to Reno in 1992. When relocating my construction business to the Washoe County area, I discovered and enjoyed a friendly business attitude from the representatives of the Washoe County Building Department. I believe that working with and networking with the representatives of the building department helps the public relationship between the department and the general public in the construction industry. I would like to help perpetuate the relationship between the department and the general public to allow for continued success in the development and construction in the Washoe County area.
