If Impositions shall be charged, levied, assessed or imposed for any fiscal period during which the Term commences or terminates, then the Impositions shall be apportioned between the Landlord and the Tenant so that the Tenant pays its pro rata share of such period based on the number of days which fall within the Term. Promptly following the date hereof, the Landlord shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain a separate real estate tax bill covering only the Property.

In no event shall the Reno Housing Authority be liable for any Impositions.

The Tenant's obligations under this ARTICLE IV shall survive the Expiration Date or earlier termination of the Term for any Impositions owed as a result of the Tenant's occupancy of the Property, and shall also be considered "Additional Rent."

ARTICLE V. INSURANCE

At all times during the Term the Tenant shall, at its own cost and expense, maintain the following insurance coverage in force for the benefit of the Landlord and the Tenant:

1. Property damage insurance coverage on a special form ("all risk") of physical loss or damage basis. All such insurance shall be in an amount equivalent to the full replacement cost thereof in amounts that meet any applicable coinsurance requirements, without deduction for depreciation or the cost of demolition and removal of debris, but exclusive of excavations and foundations. Property damage insurance shall cover the Building, including the Building shell and other Structural Elements, and the Building Systems.

2. Commercial general liability insurance, which shall include coverage of the Tenant's contractual liability obligation expressed in ARTICLE XVI, against claims for personal injury, death or property damage occurring during the Term on, in or about the Property. Primary coverage shall be not less than Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) for injury (including death) and damage to property arising out of any one occurrence, and Four Million Dollars ($4,000,000) for any general aggregate limit.

The Tenant shall cause the Landlord to be included as additional insureds under the foregoing policies. Each such policy shall contain provisions, if and to the extent available, that the act or omission of an insured will not invalidate the policy as to other insureds.

If any insurance provides for a deductible or self-insured retention amount, the Tenant shall pay the full amount of the deductible if an insured event occurs. Tenant shall pay the premiums with respect to the coverage required above on or prior to the due date therefor.

Prior to the Term Commencement Date, the Tenant shall furnish the Landlord with certificates issued by and binding upon the insurer evidencing the coverage required above. Thereafter, prior to the expiration of any policy of insurance, the Tenant shall furnish to the Landlord a certificate issued by the insurer evidencing renewal or a new insurance policy having the coverage required above. Tenant's liability insurance shall apply on a primary basis as to the Landlord and may not be canceled without at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Landlord. Tenant shall provide at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice of such cancellation to Landlord. All insurance required hereunder shall be provided by an insurer with an insurer financial strength rating of not less than Aa by Moody's Investor Services, Inc. or AA by Standard and Poor's Ratings Group, a division of the McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. ("S&P"). In the event that the Tenant's insurer fails to maintain the aforesaid minimum rating, the Tenant, within thirty (30) days after the Tenant has knowledge of such failure, shall secure replacement insurance coverage from an insurer meeting the requirements of this Article.

The Tenant shall comply with all Laws, all orders and decrees of a court and all requirements of other Governmental Authorities (defined in ARTICLE X) which are applicable to the use, manner of use and occupancy of the Property, and the Tenant shall not, directly or indirectly, make any use of the Property which may (1) thereby be prohibited or be dangerous to any Person or property (real or personal), or (2) jeopardize any insurance coverage purchased by the Tenant. If by reason of the Tenant's failure to comply with the provisions of this paragraph, any of the Tenant's insurance coverage is cancelled, the Landlord may assure continued coverage of the Landlord by all commercially reasonable means available, including payment of premiums, in which event the Tenant shall reimburse the Landlord for all costs incurred therefor.

To the extent covered by insurance carried or required hereunder to be carried by the waving party, the Landlord and the Tenant each hereby waives its respective right of recovery against the other, and each releases the other from any claim arising out of loss, damage or destruction to the Property and contents thereon or therein, whether or not such loss, damage or destruction may be attributable to the fault or negligence of either party or its respective agents, invitees, contractors or employees. Each casualty insurance policy shall include a waiver of the insurer's rights of subrogation against the party hereto who is not an insured under said policy.

ARTICLE VI. USE OF PROPERTY

The Tenant shall have the right to use the Property as an overflow shelter for homeless men and women ("Clients"), parking, temporary office space, construction staging as well as for any other related lawful use of the Property including utilizing the existing electricity and internet infrastructure to pull utilities to Nevada Cares Campus temporary buildings.

ARTICLE VII. ENVIRONMENTAL OBLIGATIONS

The Landlord and the Tenant recognize that activities involving Hazardous Substances (defined below) used at the Property may impact upon the other party's property interests, employees, invitees, equipment, and operations. Therefore, the Tenant and the Landlord agree that if from and after the Term Commencement Date there is a release, spill, discharge, malfunction, other episodic event or any condition or use of Hazardous Substances that is known to such party who determines that such event or condition might reasonably be expected to impact it or the other party's property or operation in any significant respect, such party shall provide prompt notice thereof with sufficient detail to enable the other to take appropriate actions in response thereto.

In the event of the Tenant's Contamination (as defined below), the Tenant shall immediately notify the Landlord. The Tenant shall comply with all Laws and directives of each Governmental Authority which address notification to them of the Tenant's Contamination and the requirements of Remediation (as defined below), including any emergency action required to minimize damage and curtail further releases and spills of the Tenant's Contamination. Upon discovery and notice by the Tenant to the Landlord of the Tenant's Contamination, or the Landlord's notice to the Tenant that the Landlord has discovered the Tenant's Contamination, the Tenant shall promptly investigate the same, report its findings to the Landlord (and to Governmental Authorities if required by Law) and report the Remediation taken or proposed to be taken by the Tenant with respect to the Tenant's Contamination. The Landlord hereby reserves the right, in its reasonable discretion, to (i) review the Tenant's action plan and work scope in connection therewith and may object to implementation thereof only if they do not comply with Law or the directive of a Governmental Authority and (ii) in consultation with the Tenant, to supervise the Remediation of the Tenant's Contamination at no cost to the Tenant.

If a Governmental Authority institutes administrative action or a lawsuit in which the Landlord or the Tenant is named as a party (including as a third-party defendant) for failure or refusal of the Responsible Party (as defined below) to perform Remediation at the Property, or to cleanup a spill or release at an offsite location used for treatment and/or storage and/or disposal of the Tenant's Contamination or the Landlord's Contamination, as applicable, or to cleanup a spill or release of the same in transit from the Property, and in such action or suit it is determined that the Responsible Party has failed to perform Remediation or such cleanup to the satisfaction of the Governmental Authority, the Responsible Party shall reimburse the other party hereto which is so named and otherwise pay for any and all Environmental Costs. "Environmental Costs" mean the direct damages, penalties, fines, settlements, costs or expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, consultant fees, laboratory fees, and investigation and defense costs and direct costs of Remediation or such cleanup incurred by the other party by reason of any the Landlord's Contamination or the Tenant's Contamination, as applicable, including all Environmental Costs incurred by the other party by reason of a directive or order of a Governmental Authority or administrative or judicial tribunal requiring the other party to perform Remediation or such cleanup (in order to comply with Environmental Law) which is the responsibility hereunder of the Responsible Party. Without limitation, Environmental Costs may result from or be attributable to the other party's participation in such action or law suit or to the failure or refusal of the Responsible Party, as determined by a Governmental Authority or administrative or judicial tribunal, to comply with the Laws requiring Remediation at the Property or such cleanup offsite.

Landlord covenants not to cause or permit a Landlord's Contamination. Tenant covenants not to cause or permit a Tenant's Contamination. Each Responsible Party agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other party, its directors and employees from and against any and all Environmental Costs, in accordance with and otherwise subject to the provisions of ARTICLE XVI.

As used in this Lease, the words "Hazardous Substances" shall mean any pollutant, contaminant, hazardous substance, hazardous waste, toxic substance, petroleum or petroleum derived substance, waste or additive, asbestos, PCBs, radioactive material, or other compound, element, material or substance, as those terms are defined under any Environmental Law. As used in this Lease, the words “Environmental Law” shall mean any applicable U.S. federal, state or local law, statute, ordinance, judgment, governmental directives, regulations or other Laws, including all amendments and additions thereto, generally and publicly promulgated by a Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over the Property, relating to or imposing liability or standards of conduct relating to environmental control or protection of the environment, and permits, licenses, registrations and environmental compliance documents issued for operations at the Property.

During the Term, the Tenant shall be responsible for obtaining and maintaining any environmental permits or approvals, and making any notifications or reports, that are required under any applicable Environmental Laws or other Laws or permits for business operations conducted on the Property.

If either the Tenant or the Landlord is required by a Governmental Authority to provide environmental information that is best known by the other party, within thirty (30) days of the request therefor or such other time imposed by a Governmental Authority, the Tenant and/or the Landlord will each provide to the other all such pertinent information; provided, however, the Landlord must provide the Tenant with sufficient time in advance of the required response time to prepare and submit the information. Tenant shall provide to Landlord written notice of the presence, on, in or under the Property, of any Hazardous Substances in violation of Environmental Law, and shall provide to Landlord a copy of any notice from a Governmental Authority claiming a violation of Environmental Law pertaining to the Property, in each case within a reasonable time following, as applicable, Tenant’s obtaining actual knowledge of such presence or receiving such notice.

The Landlord and the Tenant agree that as of the Term Commencement Date, the environmental condition of the Property and the baseline against which all matters related to the presence of Hazardous Substances on, in or under the Property will be measured on and after the Term Commencement Date, are as set forth in the Phase I Environmental Assessment, dated October 12, 2020, prepared on behalf of Tenant, by McGinley & Associates, a copy of which has been provided to Tenant and Landlord.

This ARTICLE shall survive the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease.

ARTICLE VIII. MAINTENANCE AND REPAIRS

During the Term, at the Tenant’s sole cost and expense, the Tenant shall take commercially reasonable care of the Property as well as the Tenant’s Property (defined below) therein and thereon, and shall perform all maintenance and make all repairs and replacements to the Property, all elements of the Property, capital or otherwise, structural and non-structural, ordinary and extraordinary, inclusive of heating, ventilation and air conditioning, mechanical, electrical, plumbing and other systems located within the Property or serving the Property in the manner commercially necessary to maintain the Property in at least as good a condition as exists on the Term Commencement Date.

During the Term the Landlord shall not pay for or be obligated to perform any maintenance or make any repairs, alterations or improvements to the Property, except with respect to those required as a result of the negligent act or misconduct of the Landlord, the employees, agents, contractors, suppliers and/or other invitees of the Landlord, or any person present at the Property under any right of access granted to the Landlord pursuant to the terms of this Lease or any easement or similar agreement, in any case not otherwise covered by the insurance required to be carried by Tenant under this Lease (whether such coverage is maintained under insurance policies or Tenant's permitted program of self-insurance).

The Tenant may remove all or any of the Tenant's Property at any time during the Term. On the Expiration Date or earlier termination of the Term, the Tenant shall, at its sole expense, remove all of the Tenant's Property including, without limitation, furniture, equipment, inventory and other unaffixed personal property. If the Tenant removes any of the Tenant's Property, the Tenant shall not be required to remove pipes, wires and the like hidden behind the walls, under the floors, or in the ceilings, provided the Tenant properly cuts, disconnects and caps such pipes (installing shutoff valves therefor) and wires, and seals them off as required by Law. If the Tenant fails to remove any property which the Tenant is required hereby to remove, the Landlord may remove and dispose of the same and the Tenant hereby agrees to pay, within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Landlord's reasonably detailed bill, the total cost incurred by the Landlord within three (3) months after the Expiration Date or earlier termination of the Term to effect such removal and disposition. This Section shall survive the Expiration Date or earlier termination of the Term.

The Landlord and the Tenant agree that if any Governmental Authorities (defined in ARTICLE X) or a utility company shall require the execution and delivery of any instrument to evidence or consummate any rights-of-way for utilities or the like over or under the Property, whether or not for the benefit of the Property, then each will execute, acknowledge and deliver (as the circumstances may require) any such instrument or document without payment being demanded of either party by the other as long as such easement or right of way does not materially interfere with Tenant's use of occupancy of the Property.

The Landlord covenants and agrees that it will join in any and all applications for permits, licenses or other authorization required by any Governmental Authorities having or claiming jurisdiction in connection with the Tenant's use, occupancy and operation of the Property in a manner consistent with the provisions of this Lease, all at the Tenant's sole cost and expense.

ARTICLE X. COMPLIANCE WITH LAW

At the Tenant's sole cost and expense, the Tenant covenants throughout the Term to promptly comply with all laws and ordinances, with all orders, rules, regulations and requirements issued thereunder, and all provisions of permits, licenses and registrations issued to the Landlord and/or the Tenant (receipt of a copy thereof being a condition to compliance therewith), in each case now or hereafter enacted, promulgated or issued (collectively, the "Law" or the "Laws"), of all federal, state and municipal governments and appropriate departments, commissions, boards and officers thereof (collectively, the “Governmental Authorities”), in each case to the extent the Law may be applicable to the Property, including condition, use, occupation or operation thereof. The Tenant shall observe and comply with the requirements of all applicable public liability, fire and other policies of insurance at any time in force with respect to the Property which are either (a) purchased by the Tenant or (b) purchased by the Landlord (receipt of a copy thereof being a condition to compliance therewith).

ARTICLE XI. LIENS

The Tenant shall use its commercially reasonable efforts not to suffer or permit any lien, including, without limitation, mechanics or materialmen’s liens to be filed against the fee estate of the Landlord in the Property, or the Tenant’s leasehold interest therein, by reason of work, labor, services or materials supplied or claimed to have been supplied to or for or on behalf of the Tenant. If any such lien is filed against the Property, the Tenant covenants that it will promptly take appropriate action, at the Tenant’s option, by posting a sufficient bond, discharging the same of record or defending the action begun to foreclose the lien and obtaining a stay of the foreclosure proceeding; provided that in any event Tenant shall cause such lien to be discharged or removed of record within thirty (30) days after receiving written notice of its existence. Upon the Tenant’s failure to comply with this ARTICLE, the Landlord, in addition to any other right or remedy that it may have, may take such action as may be reasonably necessary to protect its interest in the Property.

ARTICLE XII. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

The Tenant shall not mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, encumber, or otherwise transfer this Lease or any interest herein, or any part of the Property.

ARTICLE XIII. TENANT IMPROVEMENT SUITABLE AND REQUIRED FOR USE OF PREMISES

By way of illustration only, such improvements to the grounds may include but not be limited to fencing to protect property and the homeless occupants of the Shelter. All such improvements shall be at the sole expense of the Tenant. Landlord makes no warranty in advance that the premises are even suitable to receive such leasehold improvements. At the expiration of this Lease, Tenant will remove at Tenant’s sole costs and expense, the Tenant improvements made by the Tenant unless agreed otherwise in writing with the Landlord. When removing the Tenant improvements, Tenant shall not leave the Premise in poorer condition than when the Tenant commenced occupation and use of the Property.

Upon the expiration of said three (3) day period, this Lease and the Term shall end and expire as fully and completely as if the date of expiration of said three (3) day period were the day herein definitely fixed for the Expiration Date of the Term, and the Tenant shall then quit and surrender the Property to the Landlord as required by the provisions of this Lease but the Tenant shall remain liable as hereinafter provided.

If the Landlord terminates this Lease and the Term as hereinabove provided in the previous paragraph, the Landlord may, without notice, re-enter the Property in accordance with law and dispossess the Tenant and the legal representatives of the Tenant or other occupants of the Property, by summary proceedings or otherwise, and remove the effects located therein or thereon without being guilty of trespass, eviction or forcible detainer, and hold the Property as if this Lease had not been made.

In case of any reentry and/or dispossession by summary proceedings or otherwise, Tenant shall be liable for such commercially reasonable expenses as the Landlord actually incurs for legal expenses, attorneys’ fees, and removing Tenant’s personal property.

No delay or omission by the Landlord or the Tenant to exercise any right, power or remedy upon the happening of any default by either under this Lease shall impair any such right, power or remedy granted under this Lease, nor shall any such delay or omission be construed as a waiver of any such default.

If the Landlord fails to comply with any of the covenants of this Lease on the Landlord’s part to be performed, and if the Tenant serves a written notice upon the Landlord specifying the nature of the noncompliance and, upon the expiration of thirty (30) days following receipt of such notice, the Landlord does not comply with such covenant, or when the noncompliance complained of shall be of such a nature that the same cannot be completely cured or remedied within thirty (30) days, if the Landlord shall not have diligently commenced to comply with such covenant within the thirty (30) day period, and shall not thereafter with reasonable diligence and in good faith proceed to remedy or cure the same, the Tenant may exercise all remedies available to it under this Lease, under the Law or in equity.
