

Washoe County, Nevada

~PROCLAMATION~

- WHEREAS, Jeremy Bosler began his career with the Washoe County Public Defender's Office while completing law school at California Western School of Law in San Diego, California in 1993 and has spent his entire 25-year legal career providing representation to indigent persons; and
- WHEREAS, Jeremy upon his appointment by the Washoe County Board of County Commissioners in 2005 to serve as Public Defender, became the youngest attorney to serve in that capacity and now has become the longest-serving Public Defender in the history of the Washoe County Public Defender's Office; and
- WHEREAS, Jeremy has consistently provided leadership to the Public Defender's Office and our community by serving in an official capacity among many groups, including but not limited to the Nevada Supreme Court Indigent Defense Commission, the American Council of Chief Defenders, the Washoe County Criminal Justice Advisory Committee, and the Nevada Supreme Court Evidence Based Pretrial Release Commission; and
- WHEREAS, Jeremy has strived to bring impactful and innovative services to the people of Washoe County by creating internship programs with our local universities and law schools across the United States, advocated for the creation and expansion of many of our Washoe County's Specialty Courts; expanded the use of technology, including remote visitation and case management software to better serve clients, court and our community; and
- WHEREAS, Jeremy is a respected member of the legal community and his philosophy and vision have always looked beyond the immediate legal needs of the client and to the protection and validation of fundamental human dignity and quality of life for the accused persons, their families and the community; and
- WHEREAS, Jeremy Bosler will retire from his exemplary years of service from Washoe County effective August 31, 2018 and will begin a new venture as a student of the University of Nevada's Applied Jazz Music Program;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Washoe County Board of Commissioners does hereby proclaim gratitude to Jeremy Bosler for his service to our community, our criminal justice system, and to the Washoe County organization.

Dated this 24th day of July, 2018.

Marsha Berkgigler, Chair
Washoe County Commission
