Children's Advocacy Centers of Nevada in the amount of [$64,000, no match] from the U.S. Department of Justice through the National Children's Alliance to fund chapter activities; retroactive from January 1, 2020 through December 31, 2020.

BACKGROUND

The State of Nevada contains four children's advocacy centers that have been committed to the formation of a Nevada State Chapter, the Children's Advocacy Centers of Nevada. Children's Advocacy Centers of Nevada, the Nevada Chapter, was accredited with the National Children's Alliance in October 2017. Of the four centers, two (Washoe County Children's Advocacy Center and Southern Nevada Children's Advocacy Center) are accredited centers and two (Nye County Children's Advocacy Center and Great Basin Children's Advocacy Center) are associate members moving toward accreditation. The Washoe County District Attorney's Office serves as the fiscal for the Children's Advocacy Centers of Nevada (CACNV), the State of Nevada Chapter.

The Washoe County Child Advocacy Center benefits from the CACNV goals:

1. Establish and maintain CAC accreditation throughout the state.
2. Support and enhance existing CAC programs.
3. Assist CAC establish and improve their Multi-Disciplinary Teams.
4. Provide outreach, education, and support throughout Nevada.
5. Maintain and grow funding for CACs in Nevada.

This grant approval request is retroactive due to documentation delays and meeting availability.
