ADMINISTRATIVE ENFORCEMENT CODE HEARING OFFICERS

The Administrative Enforcement Code authorizes hearing officers to preside over administrative hearings when the County Commission elects to not conduct the hearing itself. Washoe County Code (WCC) section 125.225 requires that the County Commission approve a list of all persons to serve as hearing officers. Hearing officers operate under an independent contractor agreement with Washoe County Manager's Office.

On April 13, 2010, the County Commission approved the use of the Pro Tem Justice of the Peace list for Administrative Hearing Officers. These individuals have an understanding of judicial proceedings and the ability to facilitate fairness and equitability in such proceedings. Individuals on the Pro Tem/Hearing Officer list contracted as Administrative Enforcement Code Hearing Officers receive annual training in administrative hearing procedure. Since 2010, these individuals have served in both roles.

FISCAL IMPACT

There is no fiscal impact as the Pro Tem Justice of the Peace panel is simply being updated. Expenditures associated with the administrative hearings are budgeted in the general fund Cost Center 101110 - Administrative Enforcement Process.

RECOMMENDATION

Recommendation to approve the revised Pro Tem Justice of the Peace panel for the Justice Courts pursuant to NRS 4.032; and, approve same to serve as a list of potential Administrative Enforcement Code hearing officers pursuant to Washoe County Code 125.225 and approve change in process to allow current panel members to remain on list without re-applying.

POSSIBLE MOTION

Should the Board agree with staff's recommendation, a possible motion would be:

"Move to approve the revised Pro Tem Justice of the Peace panel for the Justice Courts pursuant to NRS 4.032; and, approve same to serve as a list of potential Administrative Enforcement Code hearing officers pursuant to Washoe County Code 125.225 and approve change in process to allow current panel members to remain on list without re-applying."
