BACKGROUND

Washoe County Human Services Agency anticipates providing 413,220 congregate and home delivered meals over the next year and with this funding, meals are provided to seniors age 60 or older in our community at no cost to the seniors, although voluntary program contributions are collected to further support the program.

The Aging and Disability Services Division (ADSD) allocates funding according to the number of meals projected then reimburses the Human Services Agency for actual meals served. The reimbursement rate provided by ADSD increased in federal FY24. The current reimbursement rate is $3.40 for each congregate meal and $3.90 for each home delivered meal. These nutrition programs are the backbone of the Human Services Agency Senior programming, helping to allow seniors to age in place and providing a social environment for peer interaction. Often the meals served are the only balanced meal seniors receive on a given day.

The annual cost of Washoe County Senior Nutrition Programs for FY2023 was approximately $2,827,000 which includes funding from the Senior Services Fund 225, Indigent Fund 221, USDA/Nutrition Services Incentive Program (NSIP), soup program income, donations, and these Title III-C grants and related nutrition program income. The Title III-C grants are the single largest source of funding, and the programs would not be successful without them.

In addition to the meals provided through this ADSD funding, in February 2014, the Agency began the second home delivered meal (2nd HDM) program by committing a portion of County Indigent Funds to support a program expansion to the highest risk seniors who require additional assistant beyond that supported by the Home Delivered Meals and Congregate Meals programs. For award year 2023 the 2nd HDM program provided an additional 16,618 meals above and beyond the grant funded home delivered meal program.

The Agency received the Notices of Subaward for these grants on December 5, 2023 with effective dates of October 1, 2023; therefore, the request to accept these awards is retroactive.
