Dear Washoe County Commission,

I am writing to inform you of my interest in being considered for the vacant Assembly seat in Assembly District 30. As I may be unfamiliar to some of you, I'd like to share a bit about myself, as well.

Those that know me best know that I devote my whole heart to whatever I do. I ran for Mayor of Sparks in 2018 as a nonpartisan and have served as the Legislative Director and At-Large Representative for the Libertarian Party of Nevada, though I am now a registered Democrat. I've also worked as a community organizer for NARAL, and when I ended my campaign for Sparks Mayor, I donated my remaining campaign funds to ACTIONN for their work protecting David Chavez-Macias and countless others.

My passion has always been building common ground between multiple parties, seeking stepwise policy changes that make people's lives better. During the 2017 Legislative Session, I worked with legislators and groups across the political spectrum - the ACLU, Americans for Prosperity, Nevadans for Electoral Reform, PLAN, TAG, NARAL, and many others - to advocate for policy that made a real difference for people in their day-to-day lives. While I hold my convictions deeply and strive to uphold the highest standards of integrity in both my personal and professional lives, I also understand the importance of both coalition-building and civility in our politics.

I know I'm not a traditional choice for this seat. Some may consider me a wild card. But I prefer to see myself as a potential bridge between the parties - I'm a fighter for civil rights, social justice, and individual freedom. I believe in a government big enough to help and small enough not to hurt. I believe that a person's survival should never depend on who their parents were, what's in their bank account, what they look like, or where they were born. And most importantly, I am a person of deep integrity. To paraphrase Maya Angelou, I do the best I can every day until I learn to do better - and then I do. If you give me the opportunity, I will devote myself wholeheartedly to the people of Assembly District 30.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'Wendy Stolyarov', with a long, sweeping horizontal line extending to the right.

Experience

Director of Government Affairs & Enterprise Account Executive, Filament (June 2017-Present)

- Spearheaded and coordinated analysis, policy development, and testimony on blockchain regulation both Colorado's and Nevada's legislatures, successfully engineering CO-SB086, the only blockchain technology bill that passed in Colorado in 2018, and contributing to the passage of NV-SB398, which opened up northern Nevada for a tech boom.
- Responsible and accountable for the daily management of customer relationships, as well leading revenue growth initiatives and collaborating on marketing initiatives.
- Created and documented both sales and legislative materials.

Legislative Director, Libertarian Party of Nevada (February-June 2017)

- Led the Political Division of the Libertarian Party of Nevada, shaping policy at the 2017 Legislative Session.
- Selected, read, researched, critically analyzed, and wrote testimony on more than 50 pieces of legislation.
- Testified in front of legislative committees and met with legislators one-on-one, mediating shared and competing interests towards improved outcomes.
- Built coalitions between the Libertarian Party of Nevada and other groups, including legislators from both parties, the ACLU of Nevada, the Progressive Leadership Alliance of Nevada, Americans for Prosperity, and the Trans Advocacy Group.
- Wrote a series of biweekly newsletters (1500-4400 words) about our legislative activities for social media, boosting our "open" email rates and dramatically increasing readership ("Missives from the Front")

At-Large Representative, Libertarian Party of Nevada (May 2017-Present)

- Elected to the At-Large Representative position by party leadership at the end of the 2017 Legislative Session
- Expanding the Party in an executive leadership position by interviewing interns, coordinating volunteer efforts, fundraising, and maintaining relationships with county-level parties statewide.

Secretary-Treasurer, U.S. Transhumanist Party (November 2016-September 2017)

- Built and maintained the national Party's website (transhumanist-party.org), tracked and maintained membership records, and managed the Party's social media presence.

Freelance Illustrator & Graphic Designer (May 2009-December 2017)

- Project lead for several businesses, including JK3 Softwear, Chilliheads, and Your Friend Leo.

Freelance Voice Actress (2013-2016)

Search Engine Evaluator, Leapforce, Inc. (September 2010-March 2015)

- Conducted internet-based research and engaged in comparative analytics to improve search engine outcomes.

Assistant Teacher, Amarillo Montessori Academy (June-August 2006 & 2007)

Design Internship, Vagrosky Graphic Design (May-July 2005)

Education
