My interest in serving on the Washoe County Open Space and Regional Parks Commission is twofold. First, I have spent my whole career working in the public interest and see this as an opportunity to apply my experience to the benefit of my home area. More specifically, serving on this Commission would enable me to contribute my past experience and skills in planning, programming, finance and public policy. Second, access to open space and parks, and the recreational opportunities that they provide, are a major reason why many of us chose to live in Washoe County. Accordingly, I am an outdoors enthusiast and thrive on being outdoors, whether I am hiking, backpacking, snowshoeing, backcountry skiing, kayaking, taking my grandchild to a County park playground, or simply, spending time outdoors with others for meals and visits. I am highly motivated to ensure that residents and visitors to Washoe County are also able to engage in outdoor activity and connect to each other and the natural environment around us.

I firmly believe in the mission of the Washoe County Open Space and Regional Park Commission and the critical role that open space and regional/neighborhood parks play in helping getting our residents outdoors and ultimately, in supporting healthy, livable communities. I would be honored to serve residents of this County to promote access to quality parks, trails, open space and recreational opportunities around Reno and Sparks and in all of Washoe County.

Describe your qualifications for this appointment, including, but not limited to your educational background, professional background and awards/honors.

I have over thirty years of leadership and organizational/program management experience in the public and nonprofit sectors in international and domestic settings. My skills include: strategic planning; managing people, resources and processes to produce desired results; and financial and program management. My past work experience includes three years as executive director of an organization that invested in increasing access to public parks and open space and related public policy.

In addition, I have fourteen years of relevant experience in leadership positions on nonprofit boards and advisory committees, including leading committees, reviewing and providing input into plans, programs, finances and assessments, making presentations, and facilitating decision-making. At two organizations where I previously worked, I established and facilitated internal executive committees to provide strategic advice to the president, demonstrating my ability to craft strategic advice and support to organizational or agency leaders.

I have a Bachelor's degree from Dartmouth College (1982) and Master's degree in Public Affairs from the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University (1988).

My work experience includes the following positions and tenures:

- Chief Learning Officer, College Futures Foundation: 2013-2016
- Executive Director, Resources Legacy Fund: 2010-2013
- Philanthropic Advisor, Foundation Source: 2009-2010
- Vice President of Programs, Director of Evaluation, and Program Director: James Irvine Foundation: 1995-2009
- Assistant Country Director, Team Leader, and Project Manager, CARE: 1988-1994
- Peace Corps Volunteer, U.S. Peace Corps: 1982-1985

Please see my attached resume for further description of my past roles and achievements.

List your community and/or civic involvement history.

As noted above and in my attached resume, I have served on several boards and advisory committees in the nonprofit sector.

More recently, since I retired in 2016, I have offered strategic advice to the Board of the Outdoor Foundation as it honed its mission and strategy. (The Outdoor Foundation is the philanthropic arm of Outdoor Industry Association (OIA) and seeks to increase outdoor engagement by youth.) I have also volunteered on open space stewardship and trail maintenance projects with the Friends of Nevada Wilderness. In addition, I volunteered for the National Conservation League in voter outreach and mobilization in 2016.

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

- Thirty-one years of leadership and management experience –21 years domestic and 10 years international – in organizations that provide technical assistance and funding to nonprofit organizations and government agencies to design and implement effective programs and public policy.
- Twenty years in senior management positions with responsibility for development of organizational strategic goals and objectives, aligning processes to produce desired results, evaluating outcomes, and managing program budgets and finances.
- Fourteen years of experience and leadership positions on nonprofit boards, including leading committees, reviewing strategy, plans and assessments, and facilitating sessions and decision-making.
- Cultivated relationships with key representatives of government agencies, elected officials, community leaders and directors of partner organizations in the U.S. and internationally to obtain broad commitment and cooperation to specific program goals and strategies.

EXPERIENCE

College Futures Foundation, San Francisco, CA: 2013-2016

Established in 2005, College Futures Foundation seeks to increase the rate of bachelor's degrees earned by low-income students and ensure more college graduates for a thriving California. Budget of $20 million in 2016.

Chief Learning Officer: Responsible for the leadership and management of the research and evaluation functions and their application to program planning and achievement of the Foundation's goals.

- Organized and facilitated a Senior Management Team to advise the president and serve as a leadership body for the organization.
- Played a pivotal role in assisting the Foundation to develop a more comprehensive set of college access and completion strategies.
- Helped shape the Foundation's new regional and innovation initiatives.
- Developed a program monitoring and evaluation framework and related systems and processes.

Resources Legacy Fund, Sacramento, CA: 2010-2013

Founded in 2000, Resources Legacy Fund helps foundations and philanthropic individuals engage in significant conservation endeavors that have lasting value in Western North America and oceans worldwide.

Executive Director: Developed and implemented RLF's long-term objectives, and oversaw external communications, donor relations, and all organizational operations and conservation programs.

- Provided oversight of conservation programs and management of over $45 million in assets and annual grantmaking of $30-40 million; directly managed a $2.2 million operating budget.
- Led strategic planning process with Board of Directors in 2010 to chart directions for next ten years.
- Significantly advanced RLF's capacities in financial analysis and management, grants due diligence, program monitoring, and reporting to donors.
- Led branding process in 2012, guided by RLF's strategic plan, and development of a long-term communications strategy to generate a clear and consistent public image for RLF.

Foundation Source, Fairfield, CT: 2009-2010

Foundation Source is a provider of outsourced services for private and corporate foundations, from set up and administration to philanthropic advisory services. In 2010, the company served nearly 900 foundations nationally with $4.2 billion assets under administration.

Philanthropic Advisor: Provided advisory services to high asset and high growth donor-led foundations and corporate foundations throughout the Western U.S. through presentations to boards, research, and specific consulting projects.

The James Irvine Foundation, San Francisco, CA: 1995-2009

A private, independent grantmaking foundation dedicated to expanding equity and opportunity for disadvantaged populations and their communities in California.

Vice President of Programs, 2003-2009: Provided leadership in setting and implementing the Foundation's strategy and in overseeing its grantmaking and evaluation activities. Ensured alignment of grantmaking strategies and activities with institutional goals, priorities and approaches.

- Partnered with the then-new CEO to create a new institutional structure and culture and manage organizational change.
- Provided oversight, direction and coaching to five senior program staff in strategy development, program management, and development of external partnerships. Led program department of 15 program staff in the central office and a regional office; managed a $3 million operating budget and a $78 million grants and contracts budget in 2008.
- Established and chaired an Executive Committee of senior staff in programs, communications and finance, to advise CEO on organizational goals and priorities and on board engagement.
- Led a board-staff committee to develop and implement an approach to tracking Foundation performance and impact and establish accountability systems.

Director of Evaluation, 1998-2003: Responsible for developing evaluation approach, enhancing organizational accountability, and promoting higher organizational performance and learning.

- Created the first-ever evaluation office at a West Coast foundation. Established goals, obtained buy-in from key internal stakeholders, and developed policies and processes to guide evaluation activity.
- Recruited, led and managed team of 10 evaluation consultants to measure program results.
- Articulated and developed a framework and developed products to disseminate evaluation results in ways that offered practical information on program results and lessons to external target audiences.

Program Director, 1995-1998: Developed strategy and managed health grants portfolio with annual awards of up to $6.5 million.

Independent International Program Strategy Consultant: 1994-95

Awarded two short-term consulting contracts to assist international agencies in designing new programs.

- Save the Children/USA, Tblisi, Republic of Georgia: Conducted an assessment of program options in reproductive health. The recommendations served to guide the allocation of $1 million.
- CARE, Bamako, Mali: Designed a five-year HIV/AIDS prevention project for migrant workers.

CARE: 1988-94

A large private international humanitarian organization committed to helping families in developing countries improve the quality of their lives. CARE designs and manages community-based projects to strengthen communities with information, skills and resources.

Assistant Country Director, Kigali, Rwanda, 1991-94: Directed CARE program activities in Rwanda in community development, health care, and water supply. Annual budget of up to $4.5 million.

- Developed and wrote CARE Rwanda's Five-Year Strategic Plan. Planning process involved assessing national issues and trends, identifying needs and opportunities through focus group discussions and key stakeholder interviews, and articulating organizational goals, strategies and required resources.
- Spearheaded effort to adapt project strategies in response to civil war and unstable political environment. Established productive partnerships with international organizations to respond swiftly to emergency needs of displaced persons from Rwanda's civil war and influx of Burundi refugees.
- Developed and monitored annual program budgets and secured funding from United Nations, national foreign aid agencies, and private foundations.
- Managed six senior program directors of five different nationalities, with oversight for 125 staff.
- Cultivated relations with project government counterparts and local authorities to obtain local commitment and cooperation and enable smooth program operations.

Team Leader, Bara, Sudan, 1990-91: Established and managed a new field office for CARE in the North Kordofan State in Sudan, and led four health care, water supply and sanitation projects operating in the region. Annual budget of up to $1.2 million.

My working career was in environmental protection - a direct relationship with open space protection. I have strong environmental values, am a legacy member of the Nature Conservancy, served as a board member of Ohio's largest environmental organization, and am currently serving on TMWA's Standing Advisory Committee. Open space, in particular parks, are vital to a community well-being and liveability. Too often, in difficult economic times, parks and recreation are the first to take cuts. The public and its political leadership need to fully appreciate the impact of a large and well maintained parks system has on community character. Reno and Washoe County also have a strong history of volunteerism, but in my experience, Washoe County Parks need to take more advantage of citizens' willingness to contribute to the support our parks and open space. That is one area, if I were serving on the Commission, I would emphasize and try to strengthen.

Being retired, I have time to devote to the Commission's agenda. And as a believer in the importance of parks, I would have no problems putting my energies into this work.

Describe your qualifications for this appointment, including, but not limited to your educational background, professional background and awards/honors.

BA in Geography, SUNY Binghamton, NY 1965
MA in Community Planning, U of Cincinnati 1972
Teacher of Special Education, Ft Plain HS, Fort Plain, NY 1966-67
US Peace Corps, Guyana, SA 1967-69
US EPA Office Of Solid Waste Management 1970-73
Guam EPA Head of Technical Services and Programs 1973-76
Ohio EPA, Water Quality Planning Administrator, 1976-84
Ohio Dept of Natural Resources, Pollution Abatement Programs Administrator 1984-2003

After retirement in 2003, I was asked to serve on The Columbus Foundation's Environmental Committee and as a Board member of the state's largest environmental org. In 2005 we moved to Boquete, Panama where I was a founding member of a local rotary club, worked to improve area schools and initiated a community-wide potable water testing program.

I have an in depth understanding of most environmental programs: solid waste, water quality, agricultural conservation, pesticide management, air quality, stream channel restoration, and environmental review of development.

List your community and/or civic involvement history.

Since moving to Reno in 2012, we actively support public tv and radio, Reno Little Theater, KTMB, the Reno balloon races, and spent several years volunteering at Bartley Ranch Park. I am a master gardener, and completed an informal course in viticulture at UNR. I have been a member of TMWA's Standing Advisory Committee for three years.

Please list the name and phone number of any personal references that we may contact.

I have had limited contact with the following people, but sufficient I believe, for them to have some idea of my commitment to the community and my work ethic:
Kurt Mische, President & CEO, KNPB 775-784-4555
Sonia Folsom, SAC Liason, TMWA 775-834-8002
Lyric Burt, Company Manager, Reno Little Theater 775-813-8900

Please attach any additional information you wish.

I understand the role and responsibilities of membership on this board or commission and am willing to serve. If appointed, I will attend required meetings and training and will adhere to pertinent bylaws. I am an avid lover of nature and enjoy many outdoor activities. I am eager to support our local parks and want to be a more active member in our Washoe community. I believe in protecting our natural environment and ensuring natural parks for future generations.

Describe your qualifications for this appointment, including, but not limited to your educational background, professional background and awards/honors.

I have a B.A. in Biology from Valparaiso University in Indiana, and a MD from Michigan State University College of Human Medicine. In the late nineties I worked at UMC in Las Vegas as a Primary Care Provider. Then I homeschooled my 2 boys for 10 years, where they regularly enjoyed the Kentucky outdoors. I returned to medicine at Renown from 2013-2014. Since then I have been busy being a homemaker, learning classes online, leading a local women's group, and volunteering within our community.

List your community and/or civic involvement history.

For the past 18 months I have volunteered at Food Bank of Northern Nevada. When I was homeschooling I taught cooking classes and a Crime Scene Investigation course to the homeschoolers. In March 2017 I spoke at the Nevada Prayer Breakfast. Through these past 8 years I have led ladies study groups at the Northern Nevada Muslim Community Center. This summer we hosted an Algerian student With the Algerian Youth Leadership Program in conjunction with Northern Nevada International Center. In February 2018 I presented in the classroom of Mrs. Dede at Coral Academy of Science Middle School. In May 2018 our ICNA ladies group made gift baskets for 4 of the Washoe Fire Stations. In August 2018 we collected and donated school supplies for Glen Duncan Elementary School.

Please list the name and phone number of any personal references that we may contact.
