

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, on this day, September 17, we commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of the United States, which was signed on September 17, 1887 and serves as the supreme law of the land; and

Whereas, the Constitution represents the fundamental principles and ideals upon which our nation is built, including the values of democracy, justice, and liberty, and it embodies the collective will and aspirations of the people; and

Whereas, the Constitution established a framework for governance that has guided our nation through periods of change and challenge, ensuring the protection of individual rights and the promotion of the common good; and

Whereas, it is essential to recognize and honor the enduring significance of the Constitution, and to reaffirm our commitment to its principles and the responsibilities it imposes on each citizen and institution; and

Whereas, Constitution Day provides an opportunity to reflect on the achievements and ongoing relevance of our constitutional framework, and to promote civic education and engagement among our citizens;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Board of County Commissioners does hereby proclaim September 17, 2024 as:

Constitution Day

Dated this 17th day of September, 2024.
