Cassandra Deen

Why are you interested in being part of this board, commission, or academy?

I'm interested in a board position focused on quality improvement and collaboration with emergency medical services because I'm passionate about advancing patient outcomes through system-level improvements. EMS plays a critical role as the first point of contact in the continuum of care, and strengthening that connection between prehospital and hospital systems can have a profound impact on safety, efficiency, and patient experience

How do you feel you are qualified to serve on this board? Include any past experience, as well as serving on other board/commissions.

I feel qualified to serve on this board because of my experience and commitment to advancing clinical quality and patient safety. Over the course of my career, I have developed expertise in quality improvement methodologies, performance improvement measurement, regulatory compliance, and evidence-based practice. I understand both the strategic and operational aspects of healthcare quality. Experience in transcribing data into actionable insights and how to engage clinical teams in meaningful improvement efforts.
